++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Fine and dry with the odd shower possible.

Today:
A cloudy start to the day with some early fog patches, soon clearing. Conditions remaining dry with sunny spells throughout the day. Further cloud will develop into the afternoon, allowing the odd light shower to develop, largely over higher ground. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Any remaining light showers and patchy cloud ease into the evening, leaving a clear night, making it feel slightly cooler than recent nights. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tuesday:
A fine and dry day for the region with little cloud and prolonged sunny spells. Feeling warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry but breezy in coastal areas on Wednesday. Turning cloudier on Thursday. Remaining dry on Friday with sunny spells.
